

THZ522AU | 3D Protection for iPad® Air 2 - Caviar Black with Fiesta Red Edge

Let's face it – you're not climbing Everest with your iPad. You need to protect your iPad Air 2 tablet but you don't need to go overboard. With the Targus 3D Protection case, you can keep your device safe without weighing it down in a bulky case. It's a rugged case without the rugged price tag.

Superior Protection -With a ribbed, shock-absorbing tray and a reinforced cover, the Targus 3D Protection case is engineered for high-performance protection. 3D Protection cases pass Mil. Spec. for 1.2m/4ft drops, so you can entrust your iPad Air 2 to this protective case.

Ruggedised Outer Edge -A rugged case is all about details. The 3D Protection case has bolstered edges to protect your iPad against accidental knocks with the furniture. The case's elastic band keeps the case shut when you're ready to go. Details keep your iPad secure.

Artistic Structural Design - This is protection you can see. The structural beam design of the 3D Protection's cover repels dirt and water, giving you a firm surface to grip. It's a design you can depend on.

Adjustable Angles for Comfortable Viewing and Typing - Your iPad is versatile – so is this case. The 3D Protection iPad Air 2 case offers adjustable viewing angles and the custom tray lets you access all of your device's buttons and ports. Protective to the core without the rugged price – that's the 3D Protection.
